Hongkong, October 31st, 1878.

Tuesday to His Excellency the GOVERNOR for that the letter arrived yesterday morning at presentation to the Queen is, we presume, intended in some sort as a counterblast to the resolutions of the public meeting of Cricket Ground this afternoon, commoncing at the 7th instant. We are not acquainted with the contents of the memorial, but H.M. Ships Maypie and Nassgu. may fairly conclude that its purport was the opposite of the resolutions passed at the meeting. Putting aside, however, its drift for the moment, we fain must admire the industry which effected such a result as the collection of 2,262 aignatures to the memorial. The question remains, for them by our local Lapthorne, Mr. W. how was this accomplished? Was the memorial a spontaneous expression of opinion and feeling, or was it brought about by a Saturday next the yachts to assemble off the systematic perversion of facts? The native R.N. It appeared from the pleadings that the plain-tiff was a trader; formerly residing in Hongkong. but now residing at Canton In 1855 the plaintiff established a shop for the sale of prepared opium, and in 1850 the first defendant was anpointed manager and accountant. In 1871 someportners were admitted, including the defendants. Up to this time various payments had been made by the first defendant to the plaintiff on secount of the profits of the business, but there had been no settlement of accounts. Mr. Ho Amei had latterly been appointed attorney for the plaintiff, and on engaging an accountant to look into the accounts it is alleged that it was found s sum of $27,785 was due to the plaintiff. The defendant refused to explain the accounts and the present action was brought to compel a statement up to the year 1871. On the part of the first defendant the statute of limitations was pleaded, and it was also alleged that he had kept his accounts in due form, and that the plaintiff had frequently inspected the books and found them correct. The second defendant had been madea party to the suit to afford him an opportunity of protecting his interests, but he did not appear n the matter and has left the Colony.

The Attorney-General argued that the parties stood in the relation of principal and agent, and that the statute of limitations did not run in cases were a man was agent for another or stood in any fiduciary relationship. Ho cited cases in support of his contention. Mr. Havilar argued on the other side that case differed from those cited by the learned Attorney, that accounts had been settled between the parties, and that the statute of limitations was a sufficient bar to the actions. The case was not concluded at the rising of the Court. And it was adjourned until to-day for. the hearing of evidence on the facts in dispute, Chang Aloo, a servant on the British steamer Brisbane, was charged by Mr. Scott, steward, with stealing from his cabin, one cash-box containing the sum of £29 in gold and silver, some of the 29th instant.

The complainant said-I am steward on the British steamer Brisbane. The prisoner is boy to the engineers, and has been so for about thirteen months. At five minutes to eight o'clock last night I was in my cabin and my cash-box tained as near as I could reckon about £29. The prisoner was the only boy on board. twenty minutes past eight o'clock when I wont to my surprise, upon going inside I saw the drawer in which the eash-box was kept was broken open and the cash-box gone. There are two windows in my cabin, and it is easy to get through either. I went to the gangway and asked the quartermaster if he had seen anyone leave the ship with a box, and he renlied that he had not. I then informed the chief officer, who told me to acquaint: the police of the matter. The ten cent piece produced I can identify. It is gilded on one side. Sam Hing, a Christian, who spoke good English said—I was a passenger on the steamer Brisbane from Melbourne. I was on board-all last night from six, o'clook.
